

ARE YOU READY TO TRANSFORM YOUR PRACTICE TO VALUE-BASED CARE?

Source: spacecostdaily.com

QUESTIONS? READY TO ENROLL?

Contact Allison Bryan-Jungels, MS, CHES
Indiana Project Manager, GLPTN-Indiana
Senior Advisor, Purdue Healthcare Advisors

(765) 496-9791; abryan@purdue.edu

Our on-demand, Quality Improvement Advisors will be by your side, working on your schedule, to help you:

- enhance your participation in PQRS
- establish a Chronic Care Management program and leverage new Medicare billing code changes
- understand upcoming MIPS 2019 reimbursement changes
- exclusive access to CME and other opportunities through Support & Alignment Networks (SANs)

Your patients. Your priorities.
Your schedule. You're in control.
Join the Great Lakes Practice
Transformation Network (GLPTN)
at no cost to you.

Treating patients is more than just a job, it's a vocation. You've dedicated your life to giving your patients the best care you can offer. Now, new healthcare changes can help your practice offer value-based care.

Physician practices in Illinois, Indiana and Michigan are eligible to participate in the GLPTN if not already participating in a CMS Accountable Care Organization (ACO).

Faculty experts from eight universities are partnering with Quality Improvement Advisors (QIAs) to make sure your practice is ahead of the curve
– before changes are due.

Enroll today to access personalized resources designed to help you transform to value-based care.

Reimagine your future. We can help you get there.

Reimagine your future

The GLPTN can help you get there with

- personalized assistance
- expert guidance to prioritize your QI approach
- resources to assist both practice managers and clinicians
- our strong state and national health-industry relationships

Enrollment will be open through early 2016.

Healthcare is changing. The GLPTN can help you prepare.

By 2018, 90% of Medicare payments will be tied to quality

Navigating QI and Reporting Programs

